2. SHARE CAPITAL

General allotment powers

- 2.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles relating to authority, pre-emption rights or otherwise and of any resolution of the Company in general meeting passed pursuant to those provisions:
- 2.1.1 all shares for the time being in the capital of the Company shall be at the disposal of the Board; and
- 2.1.2 the Board may reclassify, allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over, or otherwise dispose of them (including any interests in them) to such persons on such terms and conditions and at such times as it thinks fit.

No fractions of shares shall be issued.

Shares with special rights

- 2.2 Without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares, any share may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine or, in the absence of any such ordinary resolution, as the Board shall determine.

Redeemable shares

- 2.3 Without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law shares may be issued, or existing non-redeemable limited shares whether issued or not may be converted into, limited shares which are to be redeemed or are to be liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder. The Board may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of shares provided that it does so before the shares are allotted or converted (as the case may be).

Purchase of shares

- 2.4 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company may purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares), including by the purchase of depositary certificates in respect of such shares, and may hold such shares as treasury shares.

Commissions, etc

- 2.5 The Company may exercise all powers of paying or giving commissions, discounts or allowances conferred or permitted by the Companies Law. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, any such commissions, discounts or allowances may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or otherwise or any combination of the foregoing.

Trusts not recognised

- 2.6 Except as required by law, the Company shall recognise no person as holding any share on any trust and (except as otherwise provided by these Articles or by law) the Company shall not be bound by or recognise any interest in any share (or in any fractional part of a share) except the holder's absolute right to the entirety of the share (or fractional part of the share).

Uncertificated shares

- 2.7 Subject to the provisions of the Uncertificated Securities Order, the Board may permit the holding of shares in any class of shares in uncertificated form and the transfer of title to shares in that class by means of a relevant system and may determine that any class of shares shall cease to be a participating security. Subject to the Companies Law and the Uncertificated Securities Order, the Board may lay down regulations not included in these Articles which (in addition to, or in substitution for, any provisions in these Articles):

- 2.7.1 apply to the issue, holding or transfer of shares in uncertificated form and/or the exercise of any rights in respect of or in connection with such shares;
- 2.7.2 set out (where appropriate) the procedures for conversion and/or redemption of shares in uncertificated form; and/or
- 2.7.3 the directors consider necessary or desirable in connection with the holding of shares in uncertificated form.

In relation to any class of shares which is a participating security and for so long as it remains a participating security, no provision of these Articles shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is inconsistent in any respect with the holding of shares of that class in uncertificated form, the transfer of title to shares of that class by means of a relevant system, the exercise of any powers or functions by the Company or the effecting by the Company of any actions by means of a relevant system, or any provision of the Order.

Uncertificated shares not a separate class

- 2.8 Shares in the capital of the Company that fall within a certain class shall not form a separate class of shares from other shares in that class because any share in that class:

- 2.8.1 is held in uncertificated form; or
- 2.8.2 is permitted in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Order to become a participating security.

Exercise of Company's entitlements in respect of uncertificated shares

- 2.9 Where any class of shares is a participating security and the Company is entitled under any provision of the Companies Law, the Uncertificated Securities Order or these Articles to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, forfeit, re-allot, accept the surrender of, or otherwise enforce a lien over, a share held in uncertificated form, the Company shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Uncertificated Securities Order, these Articles and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system:
 - 2.9.1 to require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to change (or require the Operator to change or instruct the change of) that share into certificated form within the period specified in the notice and to hold that share in certificated form so long as required by the Company;
 - 2.9.2 to require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to give any instructions necessary to transfer title to that share by means of the relevant system within the period specified in the notice;
 - 2.9.3 to require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to appoint any person to take any step, including, without limitation, the giving of any instructions by means of the relevant system, necessary to transfer that share within the period specified in the notice;
 - 2.9.4 to require the Operator to take all such actions as the Company may be entitled to require the Operator to take pursuant to the Uncertificated Securities Order, or otherwise request the Operator take any actions, with a view to converting that uncertificated share into certificated form; and
 - 2.9.5 to take any action that the Board considers appropriate to achieve the sale, transfer, disposal, forfeiture, re-allotment or surrender of that share, or otherwise to enforce a lien in respect of that share.

3. AUTHORITY TO ALLOT

General Board authority

- 3.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and these Articles (including the provisions of this Article 3 and Article 4 relating to the authority to allot, pre-emption rights and otherwise) and to any resolution passed by the Company and without prejudice to any rights attached to existing shares, the unissued shares of the Company (whether forming part of the original or any increased capital) and any shares held by the Company as treasury shares from time to time shall be at the disposal of the Board which may offer, allot, grant options over or otherwise deal with or dispose of them to such persons, at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms as the Board may decide.

Authorised allotment amount

- 3.2 The Board shall be generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot Equity Securities, but the authority conferred by this Article 3.2 must be exercised in accordance with the following provisions.

- 3.3 In respect of each Allotment Period, the Board shall be authorised under Article 3.2 to allot Equity Securities only up to an aggregate number of shares equal to the Authorised Allotment Shares. The Authorised Allotment Shares in respect of an Allotment Period, for the purposes of the authority conferred pursuant to Article 3.2, shall be determined by ordinary resolution.
- 3.4 During each Allotment Period the Board shall be empowered to allot Equity Securities wholly for cash pursuant to and within the terms of the authority in Article 3.2 above:
- 3.4.1 in connection with a pre-emptive issue; and
- 3.4.2 otherwise than in connection with a pre-emptive issue, up to an aggregate number of shares equal to the Non Pre-emptive Shares,
- as if Article 4 did not apply to any such allotment. The Non Pre-emptive Shares in respect of an Allotment Period, for the purposes of the authority conferred pursuant to Article 3.2, shall be determined by special resolution. For the avoidance of doubt, this Article 3.4 does not restrict the Board from allotting Equity Securities for a consideration that is wholly or partly otherwise than in cash.
- 3.5 The Board may, during any Allotment Period make offers or agreements (whether or not conditional) within the terms of the authority in Article 3.2 above which would, or might, require shares to be allotted or sold after the expiry of such Allotment Period. Any such allotment or sale shall count towards the Authorised Allotment Shares in existence during the Allotment Period in which the offer or agreement was made or entered into, notwithstanding the fact that the allotment or sale may not take place until after the expiry of such Allotment Period.

Interpretation of Article

- 3.6 In this Article and in Article 4:
- 3.6.1 a reference to the allotment of Equity Securities also includes the sale of Equity Securities in the Company that immediately before the sale are held by the Company as treasury shares;
- 3.6.2 the "Allotment Period" any period (not exceeding 15 months on any occasion) for which the authority conferred by Article 3.2 is renewed by ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting stating the Authorised Allotment Shares for such period;
- 3.6.3 the "Authorised Allotment Shares" for each Allotment Period shall be that number of shares stated in the relevant ordinary resolution in respect of such period or any increased amount fixed by ordinary resolution;
- 3.6.4 "Equity Securities" has the same meaning as defined in section 560 of the Act, as if the Company were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply;
- 3.6.5 the "Non Pre-emptive Shares" for each Allotment Period shall be that number of shares stated in the relevant special resolution in respect of such period, or any increased amount fixed by special resolution;
- 3.6.6 "Employee Share Plans" means any employee and/or executive incentive plan or scheme established (whether before or after the adoption of these Articles) for the benefit of employees and/or executives and/or their relations (as determined in accordance with such plans or schemes) of the Company and/or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries (whether or not such plan or scheme is open to all employees, executives or relations or not) and which is operated either by the Company or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries or by a third party on their behalf and under the terms of which employees and/or executives, and (if applicable) their relations may acquire and/or benefit from shares or any interest therein, whether directly, or pursuant to any option over shares granted to them or otherwise;

3.6.7 "pre-emptive issue" means an offer of Equity Securities to ordinary members or an invitation to ordinary members to apply to subscribe for Equity Securities and, if in accordance with their rights the Board so determines, holders of other Equity Securities of any class (whether by way of rights issue, open offer or otherwise) where the Equity Securities respectively attributable to the interests of ordinary members or holders of other Equity Securities, if applicable, are proportionate (as nearly as practicable) to the respective numbers of ordinary shares or other Equity Securities, but subject to such exclusions or other arrangements as the Board may deem necessary or expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or any legal, regulatory or practical problems under the laws or regulations of any territory or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange; and

3.6.8 at any time when the Company is a par value company within the meaning of the Companies Law, the number of Authorised Allotment Shares or Non Pre-emptive Shares for the purposes of Articles 3.5 and 3.6 may (but need not) be specified by reference to the nominal or aggregate nominal value of shares from time to time.

Renunciation of share

3.7 The Board may, at any time after the allotment of a share but before a person has been entered into the register as the holder of the share, recognise a renunciation of the share by the allottee in favour of another person and may grant to an allottee a right to effect a renunciation on such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit.

4. PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

Pre-emptive rights

4.1 Subject to the provisions of Article 3 above and the following provisions of this Article 4 or unless otherwise authorised or approved by the Company by way of a special resolution, no unissued Equity Securities in the capital of the Company shall be allotted wholly for cash unless the following provisions are complied with:

4.1.1 all Equity Securities to be allotted (the "relevant shares") shall first be offered on the same or more favourable terms to the holders (excluding any shares held by the Company as treasury shares) in proportion to their existing holdings of ordinary shares subject to such exclusions or other arrangements as the Board may deem necessary or expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or any legal, regulatory or practical problems under the laws or regulations of any territory or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange;

4.1.2 such offer shall be made by written notice (the "offer notice") from the Board specifying the number and price of the relevant shares and shall invite each holder to state in writing within a period not being less than 14 days whether they are willing to accept any of the relevant shares and, if so, the maximum number of relevant shares they are willing to take;

4.1.3 at the expiration of the period during which each holder may accept the relevant shares as specified in the offer notice, the Board shall allocate the relevant shares to or amongst the holders who have notified to the Board their willingness to accept any of the relevant shares but so that no holder shall be obliged to take more than the maximum number of shares notified by him under Article 4.1.2 above; and

- 4.1.4 if any of the relevant shares are not accepted and remain unallocated pursuant to the offer under Article 4.1.1 above, the Board shall be entitled to allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of such shares to any person in such manner as they see fit provided that those shares shall not be disposed of on terms which are more favourable than the terms of the offer pursuant to Article 4.1.1 above.

Non-application of pre-emptive rights

- 4.2 Article 4.1 shall not apply with respect to any Equity Securities or options which may be allotted or granted in accordance with the Company's Employee Share Plans or to the issue of Equity Securities pursuant to the exercise of any such options. The provisions of Article 4.1 shall not apply to the allotment of any Equity Securities for a consideration that is wholly or partly otherwise than in cash and the Board may allot or otherwise dispose of any unissued shares or Equity Securities in the capital of the Company for a consideration that is wholly or partly otherwise than in cash to such persons at such time and generally on such terms as they see fit.

5. LISTING RULES AND DISCLOSURE AND TRANSPARENCY RULES

Interpretation

- 5.1 For the purpose of Articles 5.2 to 5.10 (inclusive):

5.1.1 "Relevant Share Capital" means the Company's issued share capital of any class carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at general meetings of the Company, and:

- (a) where the Company's share capital is divided into different classes of shares, references to "Relevant Share Capital" are to the issued share capital of each such class taken separately; and
- (b) the temporary suspension of voting rights in respect of shares comprised in the issued share capital of the Company of any such class does not affect the application of Articles 5.2 to 5.10 (inclusive) in relation to interests in those or any other shares comprised in that class;

5.1.2 "interest" means, in relation to the Relevant Share Capital, any interest of any kind whatsoever (including, without limitation, a short position) in any shares comprised therein (disregarding any restraints or restrictions to which the exercise of any right attached to the interest in the share is, or may be, subject) and without limiting the meaning of "interest" a person shall be taken to have an interest in a share if:

- (a) he enters into a contract for its purchase by him (whether for cash or other consideration); or
- (b) not being the registered holder, he is entitled to exercise any right conferred by the holding of the share or is entitled to control the exercise or non-exercise of any such right; or
- (c) he is a beneficiary of a trust where the property held on trust includes an interest in the share; or
- (d) otherwise than by virtue of having an interest under a trust, he has a right to call for delivery of the share to himself or to his order; or

- (e) otherwise than by virtue of having an interest under a trust, he has a right to acquire an interest in the share or is under an obligation to take an interest in the share; or
- (f) he has a right to subscribe for the share; or
- (g) he is the holder, writer or issuer of derivatives (including options, futures, and contracts for difference) involving shares whether or not: (a) they are cash-settled only; (b) the shares are obliged to be delivered; or (c) the person in question holds the underlying shares absolutely or conditionally, whether legally enforceable or not and whether evidenced in writing or not, and it shall be immaterial that a share in which a person has an interest is unidentifiable. For these purposes, a "derivative" shall, in relation to shares include:
 - (i) rights, options or interests (whether described as units or otherwise) in, or in respect of , the shares;
 - (ii) contracts or arrangements the purpose or pretended purpose of which is to secure or increase a profit or avoid or reduce a loss wholly or partly by reference to the price or value, or a change in the price or value, of shares or any rights, options or interests under sub-paragraph (i) above;
 - (iii) rights options or interests (whether described as units or otherwise) in options or interests under sub-paragraph (i) above;
 - (iv) instruments or other documents creating, acknowledging or evidencing any rights, options or interests or any contracts referred to in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above; and
 - (v) the right of a person to require another person to deliver the underlying shares, or to receive from another person a sum of money if the price of the underlying shares increases or decreases;

5.1.3 a person is taken to be interested in any shares in which his spouse or any infant child or step-child of his is interested; and infant means a person under the age of 18 years;

5.1.4 a person is taken to be interested in shares if a body corporate is interested in them and:

- (a) that body corporate or its directors are accustomed to act in accordance with his directions or instructions; or
- (b) he is entitled to exercise or control or direct the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of the body corporate,

PROVIDED THAT:

- (A) where a person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of a body corporate and that body corporate is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of any of the voting power at general meetings of another body corporate (the "effective voting power") then, for purposes of sub-paragraph (b) above, the effective voting power is taken as exercisable by that person; and
- (B) for purposes of this Article, a person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of voting power if he has a right (whether subject to conditions or not) the exercise of which would make him so entitled or he is under any obligation (whether or not so subject) the fulfilment of which would make him so entitled;

- 5.1.5 a sale is a "sale of shares to a genuine unconnected third party" if the Board is satisfied that it is a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the shares to a party unconnected with the holder or with any person appearing to be interested in such shares and shall include a sale made by way of or in pursuance of acceptance of a takeover offer and a sale made through a recognised investment exchange or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom. For this purpose an associate (within the definition of that expression in section 435 of the United Kingdom Insolvency Act 1986) shall be included amongst the persons who are connected with the holder or any person appearing to be interested in such shares;
- 5.1.6 "person appearing to be interested" in any shares shall mean any person named in a response to a Disclosure Notice issued under Article 5.3 or otherwise notified to the Company by a member as being so interested or shown in any register or record kept by the Company under the Companies Law or otherwise as so interested or, taking into account a response or failure to respond in the light of the response to any other Disclosure Notice and any other relevant information in the possession of the Company, any person whom the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe is or may be so interested;
- 5.1.7 "person with a 0.25 per cent. interest" means a person who is shown in any register or record kept by the Company under the Companies Law or otherwise to hold, or to have an interest in, shares in the Company which comprise in total at least 0.25 per cent. in number of the shares comprised in the Relevant Share Capital (calculated exclusive of any shares held as treasury shares) in issue at the date of service of the Restriction Notice (as defined in Article 5.6);
- 5.1.8 "relevant period" means (i) in the case of the obligation of each holder to comply with the notification obligations under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules pursuant to Article 5.2, the period required to make the relevant notification as provided under the relevant provision of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules and (ii) in relation to an obligation of any person required to give information pursuant to a Disclosure Notice issued under Article 5.6, a period of 14 days following service of a Disclosure Notice;
- 5.1.9 "Relevant Restrictions" mean in the case of a Restriction Notice served on a person with a 0.25 per cent. interest that:
- (a) the shares shall not confer on the holder any right to attend or vote either personally or by proxy at any general meeting of the Company or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings;
 - (b) the Board may withhold payment of all or any part of any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the shares and the holder shall not be entitled to receive shares in lieu of dividends;
 - (c) the Board may place restrictions on the transfer of any of the shares which are certificated shares, provided that such restrictions do not apply to a sale of shares to a genuine unconnected third party, and in any other case mean only the restriction specified in sub-paragraph 5.1.9(a) above of this definition; and

- 5.1.10 "Disclosure Notice" means a notice in writing served by the Company under Article 5.3 requiring particulars of interests in shares or of the identity of any person interested in shares.

Application of Disclosure and Transparency Rules

- 5.2 If at any time the Company has any class of shares admitted to trading on a stock exchange, the provisions of Chapter 5 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into these Articles and each member must comply with the notification obligations to the Company contained therein including, without limitation, the provisions of DTR 5.1.2, as if the Company were a UK-Issuer (and not a non-UK Issuer) (in each case, as defined in DTR 5.1) for the purposes of these provisions. The vote holder and issuer notification rules shall apply to the Company as well as each holder of shares.

Power of Company to investigate interests in shares

- 5.3 The Company may issue a Disclosure Notice to any holder requiring that holder to:
- 5.3.1 confirm the identity of each person (other than the holder) who is interested in any shares held by such holder or (so far as lies within the holder's knowledge) who has been so interested at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued (or to confirm whether or not any such person is or (so far as lies within the holder's knowledge) has been so interested); and
 - 5.3.2 if any person holds, or has during the time held, any such interest, to give particulars (so far as lies within the holder's knowledge) of such person's present or past interest in the shares held by such holder and any other shares comprised in the Relevant Share Capital, including the name(s) of any other holder(s) who hold shares in which such person has or had any such interest, in each case held by such person at any time during the three-year period mentioned in 5.3 above.
- 5.4 The information required by the Disclosure Notice must be given within the relevant period.
- 5.5 The Company will keep a record of information received pursuant to Article 5.3. The Company will within three days of receipt of such information enter in the record:
- 5.5.1 the fact that the requirement was imposed and the date it was imposed; and
 - 5.5.2 the information received in pursuance of the requirement.

The information must be entered against the name of the present holder of the shares in question. All entries will be in chronological order. The record kept for these purposes will be available for inspection by members of the Company at the Company's registered office or at any other place specified by the Board.

Restriction Notices

- 5.6 Where the holder holding shares comprised in the Relevant Share Capital in the Company fails to comply within the relevant period with:
- 5.6.1 any of its obligations under Article 5.2 (so far as the Company is, or has become, aware of such matter); or

- 5.6.2 any Disclosure Notice issued under Article 5.3 in respect of those shares or, in purported compliance with such a notice, has made a statement which is false or inadequate in a material particular, the Company may give the holder a notice (a "Restriction Notice") to the effect that, with effect from 14 days after the service of the Restriction Notice, those shares will be subject to some or all of the Relevant Restrictions (as defined in Article 5.1.9), and, with effect from 14 days after the service of the Restriction Notice, those shares shall, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, be subject to those Relevant Restrictions accordingly. For the purpose of enforcing the Relevant Restrictions, the Board may give notice to the relevant holder requiring the holder to change the relevant shares held in uncertificated form to certificated form by the time stated in the notice and to keep them in certificated form for so long as the Board requires. The notice may also state that the holder may not change any of the relevant shares held in certificated form to uncertificated form. If the holder does not comply with the notice, the Board may authorise any person to instruct the Operator to change the relevant shares held in uncertificated form to certificated form.

- 5.7 If after the service of a Restriction Notice in respect of any shares the Board is satisfied that all information required by any Disclosure Notice or otherwise relating to those shares or any of them from their holder has been supplied, the Company shall, within seven days, cancel the Restriction Notice. The Board may at any time at its discretion cancel any Restriction Notice or exclude any shares from it. The Company shall cancel a Restriction Notice within seven days after receipt of a notice in writing that the relevant shares have been subject to a sale of shares to a genuine unconnected third party.
- 5.8 Where any Restriction Notice is cancelled or ceases to have effect in relation to any shares, any moneys relating to those shares which were withheld by reason of that notice shall be paid without interest to the person who would but for the notice have been entitled to them or as he may direct.
- 5.9 Any new shares in the Company issued in respect of, or as a result of a member holding, any shares subject to a Restriction Notice shall also be subject to the Restriction Notice, and the Board may make any right to an allotment of the new shares subject to restrictions corresponding to those which will apply to those shares by reason of the Restriction Notice when such shares are issued.
- 5.10 Any holder on whom a Restriction Notice has been served may at any time request the Company to give in writing the reason why the Restriction Notice has been served, or why it remains uncancelled, and within 14 days of receipt of such notice the Company shall give that information accordingly in such detail as the Board may determine at its discretion.

6. VARIATION OF RIGHTS

Method of varying rights

- 6.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of allotment of the shares of that class) be varied or abrogated, whether or not the Company is being wound up, either:
- 6.1.1 with the written consent of the holders of two-thirds in number of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares), which consent shall be in hard copy form or in electronic form sent to such address (if any) for the time being specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or in default of such specification to the office, and may consist of several documents, each executed or authenticated in such manner as the Board may approve by or on behalf of one or more holders, or a combination of both; or

6.1.2 with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class, but not otherwise.

When rights are varied

6.2 For the purposes of Article 6.1, a "variation of rights" has the meaning given in Article 52(4) of the Companies Law.

7. SHARE CERTIFICATES

Members' rights to certificates

7.1 Every member, on becoming the holder of any certificated share (except where the Companies Law does not require the delivery of such a certificate) shall be entitled, without payment, to one certificate for all the certificated shares of each class held by him (and, on transferring a part of his holding of certificated shares of any class, to a certificate for the balance of his holding of certificated shares). He may elect to receive one or more additional certificates for any of his certificated shares if he pays a reasonable sum determined from time to time by the Board for every certificate after the first. Every certificate shall:

7.1.1 be executed under the seal or otherwise in accordance with Article 33 or in such other manner as the Board may approve; and

7.1.2 specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up on the shares.

The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for certificated shares held jointly by more than one person and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them. Shares of different classes may not be included in the same certificate.

Replacement of certificates

7.2 If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and payment of any exceptional out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence and preparing the requisite form of indemnity as the Board may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

Sending of certificate at risk of member

7.3 Every share certificate sent in accordance with these Articles will be sent at the risk of the member or other person entitled to the share certificate. The Company shall not be responsible for any share certificate lost or delayed in the course of delivery.

8. LIEN

Company to have lien on shares

8.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys payable to the Company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share. The Board may at any time (generally or in a particular case) waive any lien or declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount (including without limitation dividends) payable in respect of it.

Enforcement of lien by sale

- 8.2 The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board determines, any share on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within 14 clear days after notice has been sent to the holder of the share, or to the person entitled to it by transmission, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the share may be sold.

Giving effect to sale

- 8.3 To give effect to that sale the Board may, if the share is a certificated share, authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer in respect of the share sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. If the share is an uncertificated share, the Board may exercise any of the Company's powers under Article 2.9 to effect the sale of the share to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. The buyer shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money and his title to the share shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in relation to the sale.

Application of proceeds

- 8.4 The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of so much of the sum in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. Any residue shall (if the share sold is a certificated share, on surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate in respect of the share sold and, whether the share sold is a certificated or uncertificated share, subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed on the share before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale.

9. CALLS ON SHARES

Power to make calls

- 9.1 Subject to the terms of allotment, the Board may from time to time make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, provided that there must be at least one calendar month between the payment date of two consecutive calls. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least one calendar month's notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company the amount called on his shares as required by the notice. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may be revoked in whole or part and the time fixed for payment of a call may be postponed in whole or part as the Board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made on him even if the shares in respect of which the call was made are subsequently transferred.

Time when call made

- 9.2 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.

Liability of joint holders

- 9.3 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of it.

Interest payable

- 9.4 If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable until it is paid. Interest shall be paid at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed, the rate determined by the Board, not exceeding 15 per cent. per annum, or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act), but the Board may in respect of any individual member waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

Deemed calls

- 9.5 An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, including an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call duly made and notified and payable on the date so fixed or in accordance with the terms of the allotment. If it is not paid the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Differentiation on calls

- 9.6 Subject to the terms of allotment, the Board may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the allottees or holders in the amounts and times of payment of calls or instalments payable on their shares.

Payment of calls in advance

- 9.7 The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on any share held by him. Such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish the liability on the share in respect of which it is made to the extent of the payment. The Company may pay on all or any of the moneys so advanced (until they would but for such advance become presently payable) interest at such rate as may be agreed between the Board and the member not exceeding (unless the Company by ordinary resolution otherwise directs) 15 per cent. per annum or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act).

10. FORFEITURE AND SURRENDER

Notice requiring payment of call

- 10.1 If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable, the Board may give the person from whom it is due not less than seven clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture for non-compliance

- 10.2 If that notice is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was sent may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board. The forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited share which have not been paid before the forfeiture. When a share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be sent to the person who was the holder of the share before the forfeiture. Where the forfeited share is held in certificated form, an entry shall be made promptly in the register opposite the entry of the share showing that notice has been sent, that the share has been forfeited and the date of forfeiture. No forfeiture shall be invalidated by the omission or neglect to send that notice or to make those entries.

Sale of forfeited shares

- 10.3 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, a forfeited share shall be deemed to belong to the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board determines, either to the person who was the holder before the forfeiture or to any other person. At any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board thinks fit. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share held in certificated form is to be transferred to any person, the Board may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share held in uncertificated form is to be transferred to any person, the Board may exercise any of the Company's powers under Article 2.9. The Company may receive the consideration given for the share on its disposal and may register the transferee as holder of the share.

Liability following forfeiture

- 10.4 A person shall cease to be a member in respect of any share which has been forfeited and shall, if the share is a certificated share, surrender the certificate for any forfeited share to the Company for cancellation. The person shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of that share with interest on that amount at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before the forfeiture or, if no interest was so payable, at the rate determined by the Board, not exceeding 15 per cent. per annum or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act), from the date of forfeiture until payment. The Board may waive payment wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on its disposal.

Surrender

- 10.5 The Board may accept the surrender of any share which it is in a position to forfeit on such terms and conditions as may be agreed. Subject to those terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

Extinction of rights

- 10.6 The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only those rights and liabilities expressly saved by these Articles, or as are given or imposed in the case of past members by the Companies Law.

Evidence of forfeiture or surrender

- 10.7 A declaration under oath by a director or the secretary that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The declaration shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer or transfer by means of the relevant system, as the case may be) constitute a good title to the share. The person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, and his title to the share shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

11. TRANSFER OF SHARES

Form and execution of transfer of certificated share

- 11.1 Without prejudice to any power of the Company to register as member a person to whom the right to any share has been transmitted by operation of law, the instrument of transfer of a certificated share may be in any usual form or in any other form which the Board may approve. An instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee. An instrument of transfer need not be under seal.

Transfers of partly paid certificated shares

- 11.2 The Board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share which is not fully paid, provided that the refusal does not prevent dealings in shares in the Company from taking place on an open and proper basis.

Invalid transfers of certificated shares

- 11.3 The Board may also refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share unless the instrument of transfer:
- 11.3.1 is lodged, duly stamped (if stampable), at the office or at another place appointed by the Board accompanied by the certificate for the share to which it relates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
 - 11.3.2 is in respect of only one class of shares; and
 - 11.3.3 is in favour of not more than four transferees.

Transfers where no share certificate required

- 11.4 In the case of a transfer of a certificated share where, pursuant to the Companies Law, no share certificate was required to be issued in respect of such share, the lodging of a share certificate will only be necessary if and to the extent that a certificate has been issued in respect of the share in question.

Notice of refusal to register

- 11.5 If the Board refuses to register a transfer of a share in certificated form, it shall send the transferee notice of its refusal within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company.

No fee payable on registration

- 11.6 No fee shall be charged for the registration of any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to a share.

Retention of transfers

- 11.7 The Company shall be entitled to retain an instrument of transfer which is registered, but an instrument of transfer which the Board refuses to register shall be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is sent.

12. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

Transmission

- 12.1 If a member dies, the survivor or survivors where he was a joint holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest. Nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased member (whether a sole or joint holder) from any liability in respect of any share held by him.

Elections permitted

- 12.2 A person becoming entitled by transmission to a share may, on production of any evidence as to his entitlement properly required by the Board, elect either to become the holder of the share or to have another person nominated by him registered as the transferee. If he elects to become the holder he shall send notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered and the share is a certificated share, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. If he elects to have himself or another person registered and the share is an uncertificated share, he shall take any action the Board may require (including without limitation the execution of any document and the giving of any instruction by means of a relevant system) to enable himself or that person to be registered as the holder of the share. All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares apply to that notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member and the death or bankruptcy of the member or other event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred.

Elections required

- 12.3 The Board may at any time send a notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within 60 days, the Board may, after the expiry of that period, withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Rights of persons entitled by transmission

- 12.4 A person becoming entitled by transmission to a share shall, on production of any evidence as to his entitlement properly required by the Board and subject to the requirements of Article 12.2, have the same rights in relation to the share as he would have had if he were the holder of the share, subject to Article 35.9. That person may give a discharge for all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share, but he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any meeting of the Company or to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company.

13. ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

New shares subject to these Articles

- 13.1 All shares created by an increase of the Company's share capital, by consolidation, division or subdivision of its share capital or the conversion of stock into paid-up shares shall be:
- 13.1.1 subject to all the provisions of these Articles, including without limitation provisions relating to payment of calls, lien, forfeiture, transfer and transmission; and
 - 13.1.2 ordinary shares, unless otherwise provided by these Articles, by the resolution creating the shares or by the terms of allotment of the shares.

Fractions arising

- 13.2 Whenever any fractions arise as a result of a consolidation or sub-division of shares, the Board may on behalf of the members deal with the fractions as it thinks fit. In particular, without limitation, the Board may sell shares representing fractions to which any members would otherwise become entitled to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members. Where the shares to be sold are held in certificated form the Board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. Where the shares to be sold are held in uncertificated form, the Board may do all acts and things it considers necessary or expedient to effect the transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. The buyer shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys and his title to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in relation to the sale. Alternatively, without limitation, where the number of shares held by a member on a consolidation is not an exact multiple of the shares to be consolidated, the Board may issue to that member, credited as fully paid up, the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding to the required multiple. This issue will be by way of capitalisation of reserves and the amount required to pay up the shares can at the discretion of the Board be taken from any of the Company's reserves or the profit and loss account and can be capitalised by applying it in paying up the shares.

14. GENERAL MEETINGS

Annual general meetings

- 14.1 The Board shall convene and the Company shall hold annual general meetings in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Law.

Convening general meetings

- 14.2 The Board may call general meetings whenever and at such times and places as it shall determine. On the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board shall promptly convene a general meeting in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Law and these Articles. If there are insufficient directors in the location of the general meeting to call a general meeting any director of the Company may call a general meeting, but where no director is willing or able to do so, any two members of the Company may summon a meeting for the purpose of appointing one or more directors.

Class meetings

- 14.3 All provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, except that, in the case of separate general meetings of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company:

14.3.1 the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in number of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or, at any adjourned meeting of such holders, one holder present in person or by proxy, whatever the amount of his holding, who shall be deemed to constitute a meeting;

14.3.2 any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll; and

14.3.3 each holder of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by him.

For the purposes of this Article, where a person is present by proxy or proxies, he is treated only as holding the shares in respect of which those proxies are authorised to exercise voting rights.

15. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Period of notice

15.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, all general meetings may be called by at least 14 clear days' notice.

Recipients of notice

15.2 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be sent to every member and every director, provided that holders of partly-paid shares shall only be entitled to notice of a general meeting if a resolution has been proposed which: (i) directly and adversely affects the rights of those shares; or (ii) is for the winding up of the Company; or (iii) involves the repayment or distribution of capital to ordinary members. The auditors are entitled to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meeting which any member is entitled to receive.

Contents of notice: general

15.3 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the notice shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting (including without limitation any satellite meeting place arranged for the purposes of Article 15.13, which shall be identified as such in the notice) and the general nature of the business to be dealt with.

Contents of notice: additional requirements

15.4 In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall specify the meeting as such. In the case of a meeting to pass a special resolution, the notice shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.

Article 15.15 arrangements

15.5 The notice shall include details of any arrangements made for the purpose of Article 15.15 (making clear that participation in those arrangements will not amount to attendance at the meeting to which the notice relates).

Circulation of members' Resolutions

15.6 Members representing at least ten per cent. of the total voting rights of all members who have a right to vote on the resolution at the annual general meeting to which the request relates, or not less than 100 members who have a relevant right to vote and who hold shares in the Company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of at least £100, may require the Company to circulate, to members of the Company entitled to receive notice of the next annual general meeting, notice of a resolution which may be properly moved and is intended to be moved at that meeting, and if so required the Company shall, unless the resolution:

15.6.1 would, if passed, be ineffective (whether by reason of inconsistency with any enactment or the Company's constitution or otherwise);

15.6.2 is defamatory of any person; or

15.6.3 is frivolous or vexatious, give such notice in the same manner as set out in the provisions of sections 339(1) to 339(3) of the Act as if the Company were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply.

15.7 A request by the members under Article 15.6 may be in hard copy or in electronic form and must:

15.7.1 identify the resolution of which notice is to be given;

15.7.2 be authenticated by the person or persons making it; and

15.7.3 be received by the Company at least six weeks before the annual general meeting to which the request relates, or if later the time at which notice is given of that meeting.

Circulation of Explanatory Statements

15.8 Where so requested by members representing at least ten per cent. of the total voting rights of all holders who have a relevant right to vote, or by not less than 100 members who have a relevant right to vote and who hold shares in the Company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of at least £100, the Company shall circulate, to holders of the Company entitled to receive notice of a general meeting, a statement of not more than 1,000 words with respect to:

15.8.1 a matter referred to in a proposed resolution to be dealt with at that meeting; or 15.8.2 other business to be dealt with at that meeting.

15.9 A request by the members under Article 15.8 may be in hard copy or in electronic form and must:

15.9.1 identify the statement to be circulated;

15.9.2 be authenticated by the person or persons making it; and

15.9.3 be received by the Company at least one week before the meeting to which it relates.

15.10 In Articles 15.8 and 15.9, "relevant right to vote" means:

15.10.1 in relation to a statement with respect to a matter referred to in a proposed resolution, a right to vote on that resolution at a meeting to which the requests relate; and 15.10.2 in relation to any other statement, a right to vote at the meeting to which the requests relate.

Information rights

15.11 A member shall have the right to nominate another person, on whose behalf he holds shares, to enjoy information rights (as such term is defined in section 146 of the Act). The nominated person shall have the same rights as those contained in the provisions of sections 146 to 149 (other than section 146(4)) of the Act, and the Company shall comply with all its obligations in respect of such information rights granted to nominated person as if it were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions of the Act apply provided that:

15.11.1 references to accounts, reports or other documents shall be construed as references to the corresponding documents (if any) under the Companies Law;

15.11.2 references to section 1145 of the Act shall not include sections 1145(4) and 1145(5);

15.11.3 section 147(4) shall be replaced by the provisions of Articles 41.18 to 41.21 with reference to "member" in those Articles being replaced by "nominated person"; and

15.11.4 references to "bankruptcy" in section 148(4) shall include bankruptcy as defined in the Interpretation (Jersey) Law 1954 and references to "winding up" shall include winding up under Part 21 of the Companies Law.

Power to require website publication of audit concerns

15.12 Where so requested in the manner set out in section 527(4) of the Act by holders representing; (a) at least five per cent. of the total voting rights of all the members who have a right to vote at the general meeting at which the Company's annual accounts are laid, or (b) by at least 100 members who have such right to vote and hold shares in the Company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of at least £100, the Company shall publish on its website a statement setting out any matter relating to the audit of the Company's accounts or any circumstances connected with an auditor of the Company ceasing to hold office, and the Company shall comply with all the obligations relating to the publication of such statement contained in the provisions of sections 527 to 529 (other than section 527(5) and excluding the reference to "See also section 153 (exercise of rights where shares are held on behalf of others)" in section 527(2)) of the Act as if it were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply, provided always that the Company shall not be required to comply with the obligation set out in section 527(1) of the Act where the Board believes in good faith that the rights conferred by this article are being abused.

General meetings at more than one place

15.13 The Board may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a satellite meeting place anywhere in the world. The members present in person or by proxy at satellite meeting places shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairman of the general meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the general meeting to ensure that members attending at all the meeting places are able to:

15.13.1 participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;

15.13.2 hear and see all persons who speak (whether by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise) in the principal meeting place and any satellite meeting place; and 15.13.3 be heard and seen by all other persons so present in the same way.

The chairman of the general meeting shall be present at, and the meeting shall be deemed to take place at, the principal meeting place.

Interruption or adjournment where facilities inadequate

15.14 If it appears to the chairman of the general meeting that the facilities at the principal meeting place or any satellite meeting place have become inadequate for the purposes referred to in Article 15.3, then the chairman may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the general meeting. All business conducted at that general meeting up to the time of that adjournment shall be valid. The provisions of Article 16.6 shall apply to that adjournment.

Other arrangements for viewing and hearing proceedings

- 15.15 The Board may make arrangements for persons entitled to attend a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting to be able to view and hear the proceedings of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting and to speak at the meeting (whether by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise) by attending at a venue anywhere in the world not being a satellite meeting place. Those attending at any such venue shall not be regarded as present at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting and shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting at or from that venue. The inability for any reason of any member present in person or by proxy at such a venue to view or hear all or any of the proceedings of the meeting or to speak at the meeting shall not in any way affect the validity of the proceedings of the meeting.

Controlling level of attendance

- 15.16 The Board may from time to time make any arrangements for controlling the level of attendance at any venue for which arrangements have been made pursuant to Article 15.15 (including without limitation the issue of tickets or the imposition of some other means of selection) it in its absolute discretion considers appropriate, and may from time to time change those arrangements. If a member, pursuant to those arrangements, is not entitled to attend in person or by proxy at a particular venue, he shall be entitled to attend in person or by proxy at any other venue for which arrangements have been made pursuant to Article 15.15. The entitlement of any member to be present at such venue in person or by proxy shall be subject to any such arrangement then in force and stated by the notice of meeting or adjourned meeting to apply to the meeting.

Change in place and/or time of meeting

- 15.17 If, after the sending of notice of a general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the Board decides that it is impracticable or unreasonable, for a reason beyond its control, to hold the meeting at the declared place (or any of the declared places, in the case of a meeting to which Article 15.13 applies) and/or time, it may change the place (or any of the places, in the case of a meeting to which Article 15.13 applies) and/or postpone the time at which the meeting is to be held. If such a decision is made, the Board may then change the place (or any of the places, in the case of a meeting to which Article 15.13 applies) and/or postpone the time again if it decides that it is reasonable to do so. In either case:

15.17.1 no new notice of the meeting need be sent, but the Board shall, if practicable, advertise the date, time and place of the meeting in at least two national newspapers and shall make arrangements for notices of the change of place and/or postponement to appear at the original place and/or at the original time; and

15.17.2 a proxy appointment in relation to the meeting may, if by means of a document in hard copy form, be delivered to the address or to such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 18.4.1 or, if in electronic form, be received at the address (if any) specified by, or on behalf of, the Company in accordance with Article 18.4.2, at any time not less than 48 hours before the postponed time appointed for holding the meeting provided that the Board may specify, in any case, that in calculating the period of 48 hours, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Meaning of participate

- 15.18 For the purposes of Articles 15.13, 15.14, 15.15, 15.16 and 15.17, the right of a member to participate in the business of any general meeting shall include, without limitation, the right to speak, vote on a show of hands, vote on a poll, be represented by a proxy and have access to all documents which are required by the Companies Law or these Articles to be made available at the meeting.

Accidental omission to send notice etc.

15.19 The accidental omission to send a notice of a meeting or resolution, or to send any notification where required by the Companies Law or these Articles in relation to the publication of a notice of meeting on a website, or to send a form of proxy where required by the Companies Law or these Articles, to any person entitled to receive it, or the non-receipt for any reason of any such notice, resolution or notification or form of proxy by that person, whether or not the Company is aware of such omission or non-receipt, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Security

15.20 The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction it or he considers appropriate to ensure the security of a general meeting including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity to be produced by those attending the meeting, the searching of their personal property and the restriction of items that may be taken into the meeting place. The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman are entitled to refuse entry to a person who refuses to comply with these arrangements, requirements or restrictions.

16. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

16.1 No business shall be dealt with at any general meeting unless a quorum is present, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the choice or appointment of a chairman, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, a quorum is present at a general meeting, irrespective of the number of persons actually present at the general meeting, if the holder or holders of not less than 5% of the shares entitled to vote at the general meeting are present in person or represented by proxy.

If quorum not present

16.2 If such a quorum is not present within 30 minutes (or such longer time not exceeding one hour as the chairman of the meeting may decide to wait) from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved, and in any other case shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the chairman of the meeting may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, determine. The adjourned meeting shall be dissolved if a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting.

Chairman

16.3 The chairman, if any, of the Board or, in his absence, any deputy chairman of the Company or, in his absence, some other director nominated by the Board, shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If neither the chairman, deputy chairman nor such other director (if any) is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is not willing to act as chairman, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman. If there is only one director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman. If no director is willing to act as chairman, or if no director is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall choose a member present in person to be chairman.

Directors entitled to speak

- 16.4 A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company.

Adjournment: chairman's powers

- 16.5 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be dealt with at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been dealt with at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. In addition (and without prejudice to the chairman's power to adjourn a meeting conferred by Article 15.14), the chairman may adjourn the meeting to another time and place without such consent if it appears to him that:

- 16.5.1 it is likely to be impracticable to hold or continue that meeting because of the number of members wishing to attend who are not present; or
- 16.5.2 the unruly conduct of persons attending the meeting prevents or is likely to prevent the orderly continuation of the business of the meeting; or
- 16.5.3 an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted.

Adjournment: procedures

- 16.6 Any such adjournment may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, be for such time and to such other place (or, in the case of a meeting held at a principal meeting place and a satellite meeting place, such other places) as the chairman may, in his absolute discretion determine, notwithstanding that by reason of such adjournment some members may be unable to be present at the adjourned meeting. Any such member may nevertheless appoint a proxy for the adjourned meeting either in accordance with Article 18.4 or by means of a document in hard copy form which, if delivered at the meeting which is adjourned to the chairman or the secretary or any director, shall be valid even though it is given at less notice than would otherwise be required by Article 18.4.1. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or for an indefinite period, notice shall be sent at least seven clear days before the date of the adjourned meeting specifying the time and place (or places, in the case of a meeting to which Article 15.13 applies) of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to send any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be dealt with at an adjourned meeting.

Amendments to resolutions

- 16.7 If an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but is in good faith ruled out of order by the chairman, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. With the consent of the chairman, an amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer before it is voted on. No amendment to a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution may be considered or voted on (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error). No amendment to a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution may be considered or voted on (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) unless either:
- 16.7.1 at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the ordinary resolution is to be considered (which, if the Board so specifies, shall be calculated taking no account of any part of a day that is not a working day), notice of the terms of the amendment and the intention to move it has been delivered in hard copy form to the office or to such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or received in electronic form at such address (if any) for the time being specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or

- 16.7.2 the chairman in his absolute discretion decides that the amendment may be considered and voted on.

Methods of voting

- 16.8 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, a vote on the show of hands, or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, a poll may be demanded by:

16.8.1 the chairman of the meeting; or

16.8.2 (except on the election of the chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment) at least three members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote on the resolution; or

16.8.3 any member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares held as treasury shares); or

16.8.4 any member or members present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10% of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding any shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution which are held as treasury shares).

The appointment of a proxy to vote on a matter at a meeting authorises the proxy to demand, or join in demanding, a poll on that matter. In applying the provisions of this Article, a demand by a proxy counts (i) for the purposes of Article 16.8.2, as a demand by the member, (ii) for the purposes of Article 16.8.3, as a demand by a member representing the voting rights that the proxy is authorised to exercise, and (iii) for the purposes of Article 16.8.4, as a demand by a member holding the shares to which those rights are attached.

Declaration of result

- 16.9 Unless a poll is duly demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn before the poll is taken) a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

Withdrawal of demand for poll

- 16.10 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If the demand for a poll is withdrawn, the chairman or any other member entitled may demand a poll.

Conduct of poll

- 16.11 Subject to Article 16.12, a poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may, and shall if required by the meeting, appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

When poll to be taken

- 16.12 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either at the meeting or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

Notice of poll

- 16.13 No notice need be sent of a poll not taken at the meeting at which it is demanded if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting. In any other case notice shall be sent at least seven clear days before the taking of the poll specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

Independent report on poll

- 16.14 The members may require the Board to obtain an independent report on any poll taken, or to be taken, at a general meeting of the Company in accordance with the provisions of sections 342 to 349 and sections 351 to 353 of the Act (excluding sections 343(4), 343(5), 349(4), 351(3), 351(4) and the reference to "See also section 153 (exercise of rights where shares are held on behalf of others)" in section 342(2)), and if so required the Company shall comply with such provisions as if it were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply provided that references to sections 325 and 326 of the Act contained in section 347 of the Act shall be construed as references instead to Article 96(2) and Article 96(5) of the Companies Law respectively.

Effectiveness of special resolutions

- 16.15 Where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the Company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

17. VOTES OF MEMBERS

Right to vote on a show of hands

- 17.1 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands:
- 17.1.1 every member who is present in person shall have one vote;
 - 17.1.2 subject to Article 17.1.3, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote; and
 - 17.1.3 a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if:

- (a) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution, and
- (b) the proxy has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it.

Right to vote on a poll

17.2 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a vote on a resolution on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.

Votes of joint holders

17.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.

Member under incapacity

17.4 A member in respect of whom an order has been made by a court or official having jurisdiction (whether in Jersey or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, curator bonis or other person authorised for that purpose appointed by that court or official. That receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a show of hands or on a poll, vote by proxy. The right to vote shall be exercisable only if evidence satisfactory to the Board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote has been delivered to the office, or another place specified in accordance with these Articles for the delivery of proxy appointments, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised provided that the Company may specify, in any case, that in calculating the period of 48 hours, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Calls in arrears

17.5 No member shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at a separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, either in person or by proxy, in respect of any share held by him unless all moneys presently payable by him in respect of that share have been paid.

Errors in voting

17.6 If any votes are counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it is pointed out at the same meeting, or at any adjournment of the meeting, and, in the opinion of the chairman, it is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the result of the voting.

Objection to voting

17.7 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is tendered. Every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid and every vote not counted which ought to have been counted shall be disregarded. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Voting: additional provisions

- 17.8 On a poll, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

18. PROXIES AND CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

Appointment of proxy: form

- 18.1 The appointment of a proxy shall be made in writing and shall be in any usual form or in any other form which the Board may approve. Subject thereto, the appointment of a proxy may be:

18.1.1 in hard copy form; or

18.1.2 in electronic form, to the electronic address provided by the Company for this purpose.

Execution of proxy

- 18.2 The appointment of a proxy, whether made in hard copy form or in electronic form, shall be executed in such manner as may be approved by or on behalf of the Company from time to time. Subject thereto, the appointment of a proxy shall be executed by the appointor or any person duly authorised by the appointor or, if the appointor is a corporation, executed by a duly authorised person or under its common seal or in any other manner authorised by its constitution.

Proxies: other provisions

- 18.3 The Board may, if it thinks fit, but subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, at the Company's expense send hard copy forms of proxy for use at the meeting and issue invitations in electronic form to appoint a proxy in relation to the meeting in such form as may be approved by the Board. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or poll concerned. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion, provided that each such proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member.

Delivery/receipt of proxy appointment

- 18.4 Without prejudice to Article 15.7.2 or to the second sentence of Article 16.6, the appointment of a proxy shall:

18.4.1 if in hard copy form, be delivered by hand or by post to the office or such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose:

(a) in the notice convening the meeting; or

(b) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting;

not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 15.16) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

18.4.2 if in electronic form, be received at any address to which the appointment of a proxy may be sent by electronic means pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Law or these Articles or to any other address specified by or on behalf of the Company for the purpose of receiving the appointment of a proxy in electronic form:

- (a) in the notice convening the meeting; or
- (b) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting; or
- (c) in any invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting; or
- (d) on a website that is maintained by or on behalf of the Company and identifies the Company,

not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 15.16) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

18.4.3 in either case, where a poll is taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be delivered or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

18.4.4 if in hard copy form, where a poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman or to the secretary or to any director.

In calculating the periods mentioned in this Article, the Board may specify, in any case, that no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Authentication of proxy appointment not made by holder

18.5 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, where the appointment of a proxy is expressed to have been or purports to have been made, sent or supplied by a person on behalf of the holder of a share:

18.5.1 the Company may treat the appointment as sufficient evidence of the authority of that person to make, send or supply the appointment on behalf of that holder; and

18.5.2 that holder shall, if requested by or on behalf of the Company at any time, send or procure the sending of reasonable evidence of the authority under which the appointment has been made, sent or supplied (which may include a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Board) to such address and by such time as may be specified in the request and, if the request is not complied with in any respect, the appointment may be treated as invalid.

Validity of proxy appointment

18.6 A proxy appointment which is not delivered or received in accordance with Article 18.4 shall be invalid. When two or more valid proxy appointments are delivered or received in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, the one that was last delivered or received shall be treated as replacing or revoking the others as regards that share, provided that if the Company determines that it has insufficient evidence to decide whether or not a proxy appointment is in respect of the same share, it shall be entitled to determine which proxy appointment (if any) is to be treated as valid. Subject to the Companies Law, the Company may determine at its discretion when a proxy appointment shall be treated as delivered or received for the purposes of these Articles.

Rights of proxy

- 18.7 A proxy appointment shall be deemed to entitle the proxy to exercise all or any of the appointing member's rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the Company in respect of the shares to which the proxy appointment relates. The proxy appointment shall, unless it provides to the contrary, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting as well as for the meeting to which it relates.
- 18.8 The Company shall not be required to check whether a proxy or corporate representative votes in accordance with any instructions given by the member by whom he is appointed. Any failure to vote as instructed shall not invalidate the proceedings on the resolution.

Corporate representatives

- 18.9 Any corporation which is a member of the Company (in this Article the grantor) may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. A director, the secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require all or any of such persons to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers. Such persons are entitled to exercise (on behalf of the grantor) the same powers as the grantor could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.

Revocation of authority

- 18.10 The termination of the authority of a person to act as a proxy or duly authorised representative of a corporation does not affect:

18.10.1 whether he counts in deciding whether there is a quorum at a meeting;

18.10.2 the validity of a poll demanded by him at a meeting; or

18.10.3 the validity of a vote given by that person, unless notice of the termination was either delivered or received as mentioned in the following sentence at least three hours before the start of the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll. Such notice of termination shall be either by means of a document in hard copy form delivered to the office or to such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 18.4.1 or in electronic form received at the address specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 18.4.2, regardless of whether any relevant proxy appointment was effected in hard copy form or in electronic form.

19. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Limits on number of directors

- 19.1 Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors shall be not less than two and the number of directors shall not be more than ten.

20. APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

Number of directors to retire

- 20.1 At every annual general meeting one-third of the directors or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office; but if any director has at the start of the annual general meeting been in office for three years or more since his last appointment or re-appointment, he shall retire at that annual general meeting.

Which directors to retire

- 20.2 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and these Articles, the directors to retire by rotation shall be, first, those who wish to retire and not be re-appointed to office and, second, those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment. As between persons who became or were last re-appointed directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. The directors to retire on each occasion (both as to number and identity) shall be determined by the composition of the Board at the date of the notice convening the annual general meeting. No director shall be required to retire or be relieved from retiring or be retired by reason of any change in the number or identity of the directors after the date of the notice but before the close of the meeting.

When director deemed to be re-appointed

- 20.3 If the Company does not fill the vacancy at the meeting at which a director retires by rotation or otherwise, the retiring director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost. If a retiring director is re-appointed he is treated as having remained a director continuously.

Eligibility for election

- 20.4 No person other than a director retiring by rotation shall be appointed a director at any general meeting unless:
- 20.4.1 he is recommended by the Board; or
 - 20.4.2 not less than seven nor more than 21 days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice by a member qualified to vote at the meeting (not being the person to be proposed) has been received by the Company of the intention to propose that person for appointment stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed, be required to be included in the Company's register of directors, together with notice by that person of his willingness to be appointed.

Separate resolutions on appointment

- 20.5 Except as otherwise authorised by the Companies Law, a motion for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall not be made unless a resolution that it should be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

Additional powers of the Company

- 20.6 Subject as aforesaid, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director and may also determine the rotation in which any additional directors are to retire. The appointment of a person to fill a vacancy or as an additional director shall take effect from the end of the meeting or, if later, at the time specified in the ordinary resolution by which the appointment is approved.

Appointment by Board

20.7 The Board may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director and in either case whether or not for a fixed term. Irrespective of the terms of his appointment, a director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation at the meeting. If not re-appointed at such annual general meeting, he shall vacate office at its conclusion.

Position of retiring directors

20.8 A director who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-appointed, either by an ordinary resolution of the Company or in accordance with Article 20.3.

No share qualification

20.9 A director shall not be required to hold any shares in the capital of the Company by way of qualification.

21. POWERS OF THE BOARD

Business to be managed by Board

21.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and these Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board which may exercise all the powers of the Company, including without limitation the power to dispose of all or any part of the undertaking of the Company. No alteration of the Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Board by these Articles. A meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Board.

Exercise by Company of voting rights

21.2 The Board may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any body corporate held or owned by the Company in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including without limitation the exercise of that power in favour of any resolution appointing its members or any of them directors of such body corporate, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors of such body corporate).

22. DELEGATION OF POWERS OF THE BOARD

Committees of the Board

22.1 The Board may delegate any of its powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. The Board may also delegate to any director holding any executive office such of its powers as the Board considers desirable to be exercised by him. Any such delegation shall, in the absence of express provision to the contrary in the terms of delegation, be deemed to include authority to sub-delegate to one or more directors (whether or not acting as a committee) or to any employee or agent of the Company or its group all or any of the powers delegated and may be made subject to such conditions as the Board may specify, and may be revoked or altered. The Board may co-opt on to any such committee persons other than directors, who may enjoy voting rights in the committee. The co-opted members shall be less than one-half of the total membership of the committee and a resolution of any committee shall be effective only if a majority of the members present are directors. Subject to any conditions imposed by the Board, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by these Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying including, but not limited to the requirements that meetings, including meetings by electronic means, except that such requirements shall apply only to committees of the Board and not to the various administrative committees of the Company.

Agents

22.2 The Board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes, with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in the Board) and on such conditions as the Board determines, including without limitation authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers, authorities and discretions, and may revoke or vary such delegation.

Offices including title "director"

22.3 The Board may appoint any person to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the Company such a designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of any such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that the holder is a director of the Company, and the holder shall not thereby be empowered in any respect to act as, or be deemed to be, a director of the Company for any of the purposes of these Articles.

23. BORROWING POWERS OF THE BOARD

Power to borrow

23.1 Subject to applicable laws, the Board can exercise all of the Company's powers relating to borrowing money, giving security over all or any of the Company's business and activities, property, assets (present and future) and uncalled capital, and issuing debentures and other securities.

24. DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

Disqualification and retirement as a director

24.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

24.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Law or is prohibited from being a director by law;

24.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

24.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

24.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

- 24.1.5 by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- 24.1.6 notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning or retiring from office, and such resignation or retirement has taken effect in accordance with its terms, or his office as a director is vacated pursuant to Article 20.7;
- 24.1.7 that person has been absent for more than six consecutive months without permission of the Board from meetings of the Board held during that period and the Board resolves that his office be vacated;
- 24.1.8 that person receives notice signed by not less than three quarters of the other directors stating that that person should cease to be a director.

Power of Company to remove director

- 24.2 The Company may by ordinary resolution remove any director from office (notwithstanding any provision of these Articles or of any agreement between the Company and such director, but without prejudice to any claim he may have for damages for breach of any such agreement). No special notice need be given of any resolution to remove a director in accordance with this Article and no director proposed to be removed in accordance with this Article has any special right to protest against his removal. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, appoint another person in place of a director removed from office in accordance with this Article. Any person so appointed shall, for the purpose of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire by rotation, be treated as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a director. In default of such appointment the vacancy arising on the removal of a director from office may be filled as a casual vacancy.

Removal from committees

- 24.3 When a director stops being a director for any reason, he will automatically stop being a member of any Board committee which he was previously a member of.

Payment for loss of office

- 24.4 The provisions contained in sections 215 to 221 of the Act in relation to payments made to directors (or a person connected to such directors) for loss of office (and the circumstances in which such payments would require the approval of members) shall apply to the Company and the Company shall comply with such provisions as if it were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply, notwithstanding sections 217(4)(a), 218(4)(a), and 219(6)(a) of such provisions.

25. NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Arrangements with non-executive directors

- 25.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board may enter into, vary and terminate an agreement or arrangement with any director who does not hold executive office for the provision of his services to the Company. Subject to Articles 25.2 and 25.3, any such agreement or arrangement may be made on such terms as the Board determines.

Ordinary remuneration

- 25.2 The directors shall be entitled to such remuneration as the directors may determine subject to any limitation as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine. Subject thereto, each such director shall be paid a fee for their services (which shall be deemed to accrue from day to day) at such rate as may from time to time be determined by the Board.

Additional remuneration for special services

- 25.3 Any director who does not hold executive office and who performs special services which in the opinion of the Board are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of such a director, may (without prejudice to the provisions of Article 25.2) be paid such extra remuneration by way of additional fee, salary, commission or otherwise as the Board may determine.

26. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

Directors may be paid expenses

- 26.1 The directors may be paid all travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Board or committees of the Board, general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

27. EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Appointment to executive office

- 27.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board may appoint one or more of its body to be the holder of any executive office (except that of auditor) in the Company and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any such director for his employment by the Company or for the provision by him of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made on such terms, including, without limitation, terms as to remuneration, as the Board determines. The Board may revoke or vary any such appointment but without prejudice to any rights or claims which the person whose appointment is revoked or varied may have against the Company because of the revocation or variation.

Termination of appointment to executive office

- 27.2 Any appointment of a director to an executive office shall terminate if he ceases to be a director but without prejudice to any rights or claims which he may have against the Company by reason of such cessation. A director appointed to an executive office shall not cease to be a director merely because his appointment to such executive office terminates.

Emoluments to be determined by the Board

- 27.3 The emoluments of any director holding executive office for his services as such shall be determined by the Board, and may be of any description, including without limitation admission to, or continuance of, membership of any scheme (including any share acquisition scheme) or fund instituted or established or financed or contributed to by the Company for the provision of pensions, life assurance or other benefits for employees or their dependants, or the payment of a pension or other benefits to him or his dependants on or after retirement or death.

28. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

Authorisation of Conflicts of interests (s175 of the Act)

28.1 A Director must avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company. This duty is not infringed if the matter has been authorised by the Directors. The Board may authorise any matter proposed to it in accordance with these Articles which would, if not so authorised, involve a breach of duty by a director as described above, including, without limitation, any matter which relates to a situation in which a director has, or can have, an interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company. Any such authorisation will be effective only if:

28.1.1 any requirement as to quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director; and

28.1.2 the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

The Board may (whether at the time of the giving of the authorisation or subsequently) make any such authorisation subject to any limits or conditions it expressly imposes but such authorisation is otherwise given to the fullest extent permitted. The Board may vary or terminate any such authorisation at any time.

For the purposes of the Articles, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests.

Director may contract with the Company and hold other offices etc.

28.2 Provided that he has disclosed to the Board the nature and extent of his interest which he is required to disclose pursuant to Article 75 of the Companies Law and these Articles a director notwithstanding his office:

28.2.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

28.2.2 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director; and

28.2.3 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate:

(a) in which the Company is (directly or indirectly) interested as member or otherwise; or

(b) with which he has such a relationship at the request or direction of the Company.

Remuneration, benefits etc.

28.3 A director shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefit which he derives from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate:

28.3.1 the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been approved by the Board pursuant to Article 28.1 (subject, in any such case, to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject); or

28.3.2 which he is permitted to hold or enter into by virtue Article 28.2, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duties as a director of the Company.

Notification of interests

28.4 Any disclosure required by Article 28.2 may be made at a meeting of the Board, by notice in writing or by general notice or otherwise in accordance with Article 75 of the Companies Law. A declaration in relation to an interest of which the director is not aware, or where the director is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question, is not required. For this purpose, a director is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware.

Duty of confidentiality to another person

28.5 A director shall be under no duty to the Company with respect to any information which he obtains or has obtained otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person. However, to the extent that his relationship with that other person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, this Article applies only if the existence of that relationship has been approved by the Board pursuant to Article 28.1. In particular, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company because he fails:

28.5.1 to disclose any such information to the Board or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; and/or 28.5.2 to use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director of the Company.

Consequences of authorisation

28.6 Where the existence of a director's relationship with another person has been approved by the Board pursuant to Article 28.1 and his relationship with that person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company because he:

28.6.1 absents himself from meetings of the Board at which any matter relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest will or may be discussed or from the discussion of any such matter at a meeting or otherwise; and/or

28.6.2 makes arrangements not to receive documents and information relating to any matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest sent or supplied by the Company and/or for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser, for so long as he reasonably believes such conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest subsists.

Without prejudice to equitable principles or rule of law

28.7 The provisions of Articles 28.5 and 28.6 are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse the director from:

- 28.7.1 disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under these Articles; or
- 28.7.2 attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents and information as referred to in Article 28.6, in circumstances where such attendance or receiving such documents and information would otherwise be required under these Articles or the law.

29. GRATUITIES, PENSIONS AND INSURANCE

Gratuities and pensions

- 29.1 The Board may (by establishment of, or maintenance of, schemes or otherwise) provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities or pensions or by insurance or otherwise, for any past or present director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings or any body corporate associated with, or any business acquired by, any of them, and for any member of his family (including a spouse, a civil partner, a former spouse and a former civil partner) or any person who is or was dependent on him, and may (as well before as after he ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

Insurance

- 29.2 Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 45, the Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for or for the benefit of any person who is or was:
- 29.2.1 a director, officer, employee or auditor of the Company or any body which is or was the holding company or subsidiary undertaking of the Company, or in which the Company or such holding company or subsidiary undertaking has or had any interest (whether direct or indirect) or with which the Company or such holding company or subsidiary undertaking is or was in any way allied or associated; or
- 29.2.2 a trustee of any pension fund in which employees of the Company or any other body referred to in Article 29.2.1 are or have been interested, including without limitation insurance against any liability incurred by such person in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution or discharge of his duties or in the exercise or purported exercise of his powers or otherwise in relation to his duties, powers or offices in relation to the relevant body or fund.

Directors not liable to account

- 29.3 No director or former director shall be accountable to the Company or the members for any benefit provided pursuant to these Articles. The receipt of any such benefit shall not disqualify any person from being or becoming a director of the Company.

Section 247 of the Act

- 29.4 The Board is hereby authorised to make such provision as may seem appropriate for the benefit of any persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in connection with the cessation or the transfer of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or any subsidiary undertaking. Any such provision shall be made by a resolution of the Board in accordance with section 247 of the Act as if the Company were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply.

30. PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

Convening meetings

- 30.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Board may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the Board by giving notice of the meeting to each director. Notice of a Board meeting shall be deemed to be given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in hard copy form to him at his last known address or such other address (if any) as may for the time being be specified by him or on his behalf to the Company for that purpose, or sent in electronic form to such address (if any) for the time being specified by him or on his behalf to the Company for that purpose. A director may also request the Board that notices of Board meetings shall be sent in hard copy form or in electronic form to any temporary address for the time being specified by him or on his behalf to the Company for that purpose, but if no such request is made to the Board, it shall not be necessary to send notice of a Board meeting to any director who is for the time being absent from the usual address specified to the Company for the purpose of providing notices to that director. No account is to be taken of directors absent from the usual address specified to the Company for the purpose of providing notices to that director when considering the adequacy of the period of notice of the meeting. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. Any director may waive notice of a meeting and any such waiver may be retrospective. Any notice pursuant to this Article need not be in writing if the Board so determines and any such determination may be retrospective.

Quorum

- 30.2 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Board may be fixed by the Board and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two. Any director who ceases to be a director at a Board meeting may continue to be present and to act as a director and be counted in the quorum until the termination of the Board meeting if no director objects.

Powers of directors if number falls below minimum

- 30.3 The continuing directors or a sole continuing director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but if the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

Chairman and deputy chairman

- 30.4 The Board may appoint one of their number to be the chairman, and one of their number to be the deputy chairman, of the Board and may at any time remove either of them from such office. Unless he is unwilling to do so, the director appointed as chairman, or in his stead the director appointed as deputy chairman, shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he is present. If there is no director holding either of those offices, or if neither the chairman nor the deputy chairman is willing to preside or neither of them is present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

Validity of acts of the Board

- 30.5 All acts done by a meeting of the Board, or of a committee of the Board, or by a person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or any member of the committee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.

Resolutions in writing

30.6 A resolution in writing agreed to by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board (not being less than the number of directors required to form a quorum of the Board) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or (as the case may be) a committee of the Board duly convened and held for this purpose:

30.6.1 a director signifies his agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from him a document indicating his agreement to the resolution authenticated in the manner permitted by the Act for a document in the relevant form (as if the Company were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to which such provisions apply); and

30.6.2 the director may send the document in hard copy form or in electronic form to such address (if any) for the time being specified by the Company for that purpose.

Meetings by telephone etc.

30.7 Without prejudice to the first sentence of Article 30.1, all or any of the persons entitled to be present at a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if each is able (directly or by electronic communication) to speak to and be heard by all those present or deemed to be present simultaneously, A director so deemed to be present shall be entitled to vote and be counted in a quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where it is convened to be held or (if no director is present in that place) where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is.

Directors' power to vote on contracts in which they are interested

30.8 Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board on any resolution of the Board concerning a matter in which he has an interest (other than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of, or otherwise in or through, the Company) which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict with the interests of the Company, unless his interest arises only because the resolution concerns one or more of the following matters:

30.8.1 the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of, the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;

30.8.2 the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which the director has assumed responsibility (in whole or part and whether alone or jointly with others) under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;

30.8.3 a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning an offer of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for subscription or purchase, in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;

30.8.4 a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning any other body corporate in which he or any person connected with him is interested, directly or indirectly, and

whether as an officer, member, creditor or otherwise, if he and any persons connected with him do not to his knowledge hold an interest (as that term is used in sections 820 to 825 of the Act) representing one per cent. or more of either any class of the equity share capital (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) of such body corporate (or any other body corporate through which his interest is derived) or of the voting rights available to members of the relevant body corporate (any such interest being deemed for the purpose of this Article to be likely to give rise to a conflict with the interests of the Company in all circumstances);

30.8.5 a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal for the benefit of employees of the Company or of any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally accorded to the employees to whom the arrangement relates; and

30.8.6 a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning any insurance which the Company is empowered to purchase or maintain for, or for the benefit of, any directors of the Company or for persons who include directors of the Company.

30.9 The Company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of these Articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board.

Division of proposals

30.10 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including without limitation fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more directors to offices or employments with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested, the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In such cases each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

Decision of chairman final and conclusive

30.11 If a question arises at a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board as to the entitlement of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interests of the director concerned have not been fairly disclosed. If any such question arises in respect of the chairman of the meeting, it shall be decided by resolution of the Board (on which the chairman shall not vote) and such resolution will be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature and extent of the interests of the chairman have not been fairly disclosed.

31. SECRETARY

Appointment and removal of secretary

31.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the secretary shall be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and on such conditions as it may think fit. Any secretary so appointed may be removed by the Board, but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

32. MINUTES

Minutes required to be kept

- 32.1 The Board shall cause minutes of all proceedings at meetings of the Company, meetings of any class of its members, meetings of the Board and committees of the Board to be entered in books kept for that purpose, and the names of the directors present at each such meeting shall be recorded in the minutes.

Conclusiveness of minutes

- 32.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be evidence of the proceedings and, until the contrary is proved, the meeting shall be deemed duly held and convened, and all proceedings which took place at the meeting to have duly taken place.

33. SEAL

Authority required

- 33.1 The seal shall only be used by the authority of a resolution of the Board. The Board may determine who shall sign any document executed under the seal. If they do not, it shall be signed by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors. Any document may be executed under the seal by impressing the seal by mechanical means or by printing the seal or a facsimile of it on the document or by applying the seal or a facsimile of it by any other means to the document. A document executed, with the authority of a resolution of the Board, in any manner permitted by the Companies Law and expressed (in whatever form of words) to be executed by the Company has the same effect as if executed under the seal.

Certificates for shares and debentures

- 33.2 The Board may by resolution determine either generally or in any particular case that any certificate for shares or debentures or representing any other form of security may have any signature affixed to it by some mechanical or electronic means, or printed on it or, in the case of a certificate executed under the seal, need not bear any signature.

Official seal for use abroad

- 33.3 The Board may by resolution determine that where the Company has a common seal and engages in business outside Jersey the Company may have for use in any country, territory or place outside Jersey an official seal, which shall be a facsimile of the common seal of the Company with the addition on its face either of the words "Branch Seal" or the name of the country, territory or place where it is to be used.

34. REGISTERS

Overseas and local registers

- 34.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and the Uncertificated Securities Order, the Company may keep an overseas or local or other register in any place, and the Board may make, amend and revoke any regulations it thinks fit about the keeping of that register.

Authentication and certification of copies and extracts

34.2 Any director or the secretary or any other person appointed by the Board for the purpose shall have power to authenticate and certify as true copies of and extracts from:

34.2.1 any document comprising or affecting the constitution of the Company, whether in hard copy form or electronic form;

34.2.2 any resolution passed by the Company, the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, the Board or any committee of the Board, whether in hard copy form or electronic form; and

34.2.3 any book, record and document relating to the business of the Company, whether in hard copy form or electronic form (including without limitation the accounts).

If certified in this way, a document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or the minutes or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Company, the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, the Board or a committee of the Board, whether in hard copy form or electronic form, shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company in reliance on it or them that the resolution was duly passed or that the minutes are, or the extract from the minutes is, a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

35. DIVIDENDS

Declaration of dividends

35.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the members, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

Interim dividends

35.2 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board may if they think fit from time to time pay to the Members such interim dividends as they may determine.

35.3 If the share capital is divided into different classes, the Board may:

35.3.1 pay interim dividends on shares which confer deferred or non-preferred rights with regard to dividends as well as on shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividends, but no interim dividend shall be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear; and

35.3.2 pay at intervals settled by it any dividend payable at a fixed rate.

If the Board acts in good faith it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferred rights.

Declaration and payment in different currencies

35.4 Dividends may be declared and paid in any currency or currencies that the Board shall determine. The Board may also determine the exchange rate and the relevant date for determining the value of the dividend in any currency.

Apportionment of dividends

- 35.5 Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; but no amount paid on a share in advance of the date on which a call is payable shall be treated for the purpose of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is allotted or issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

Dividends in specie

- 35.6 A general meeting declaring a dividend may, on the recommendation of the Board, by ordinary resolution direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, including without limitation paid up shares or debentures of another body corporate. The Board may make any arrangements it thinks fit to settle any difficulty arising in connection with the distribution, including, without limitation, (a) the fixing of the value for distribution of any assets, (b) the payment of cash to any member on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of members, and (c) the vesting of any asset in a trustee.

Scrip dividends: authorising resolution

- 35.7 The Board may, if authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, offer any holder of shares the right to elect to receive shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the Board) of all or any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The offer shall be on the terms and conditions and be made in the manner specified in Article 35.8 or, subject to those provisions, specified in the ordinary resolution.

Scrip dividends: procedures

- 35.8 The following provisions shall apply to the ordinary resolution referred to in Article 35.7 above and any offer made pursuant to it and Article 35.7:
- 35.8.1 The ordinary resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period.
- 35.8.2 Each holder of shares shall be entitled to that number of new shares as are together as nearly as possible equal in value to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder elects to forgo (each a new share). For this purpose, the value of each new share shall be:
- (a) equal to the average quotation for the Company's ordinary shares, that is, the average of the middle market quotations for those shares on the Exchange, on the day on which such shares are first quoted ex the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days; or
 - (b) calculated in any other manner specified by the ordinary resolution.
- 35.8.3 A certificate or report by the auditors as to the value of a new share in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that value.
- 35.8.4 On or as soon as practicable after announcing that any dividend is to be declared or recommended, the Board, if it intends to offer an election in respect of that dividend, shall also announce that intention. If, after determining the basis of allotment, the Board decides to proceed with the offer, it shall notify the holders of shares of the terms and conditions of the right of election offered to them, specifying the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections or notices amending or terminating existing elections must be delivered in order to be effective.

- 35.8.5 The Board shall not proceed with any election unless the Board has sufficient authority to allot shares and sufficient reserves or funds that may be appropriated to give effect to it after the basis of allotment is determined.
- 35.8.6 The Board may exclude from any offer any holders of shares where the Board believes the making of the offer to them would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them.
- 35.8.7 The dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable in cash on shares in respect of which an election has been made (the "elected shares") and instead such number of new shares shall be allotted to each holder of elected shares as is arrived at on the basis stated in Article 35.8.2. For that purpose the Board shall appropriate out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including without limitation the profit and loss account), whether or not it is available for distribution, a sum equal to the aggregate amount to be credited to the capital accounts of the Company in respect of the new shares to be allotted and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of new shares for allotment and distribution to each holder of elected shares as is arrived at on the basis stated in Article 35.8.2.
- 35.8.8 The new shares when allotted shall rank equally in all respects with the fully paid shares of the same class then in issue except that they shall not be entitled to participate in the relevant dividend.
- 35.8.9 No fraction of a share shall be allotted. The Board may make such provision as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlements including, without limitation, payment in cash to holders in respect of their fractional entitlements, provision for the accrual, retention or accumulation of all or part of the benefit of fractional entitlements to or by the Company or to or by or on behalf of any holder or the application of any accrual, retention or accumulation to the allotment of fully paid shares to any holder.
- 35.8.10 The Board may do all acts and things it considers necessary or expedient to give effect to the allotment and issue of any share pursuant to this Article or otherwise in connection with any offer made pursuant to this Article and may authorise any person, acting on behalf of the holders concerned, to enter into an agreement with the Company providing for such allotment or issue and incidental matters. Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.
- 35.8.11 The Board may, at its discretion, amend, suspend or terminate any offer pursuant to this Article.

Permitted deductions and retentions

- 35.9 The Board may deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any member in respect of a share any moneys presently payable by him to the Company in respect of that share. Where a person is entitled by transmission to a share, the Board may retain any dividend payable in respect of that share until that person (or that person's transferee) becomes the holder of that share.

Procedure for payment to holders and others entitled

- 35.10 Any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be paid:

35.10.1 in cash; or

35.10.2 by cheque or warrant made payable to or to the order of the holder or person entitled to payment; or

35.10.3 by any direct debit, bank or other funds transfer system to the holder or person entitled to payment or, if practicable, to a person designated by notice to the Company by the holder or person entitled to payment; or

35.10.4 by any other method approved by the Board and agreed (in such form as the Company thinks appropriate) by the holder or person entitled to payment including without limitation in respect of an uncertificated share by means of the relevant system (subject to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system).

Joint entitlement

35.11 If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, or are entitled by transmission jointly to a share, the Company may:

35.11.1 pay any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of the share to any one of them and any one of them may give effectual receipt for that payment; and

35.11.2 for the purpose of Article 35.10, rely in relation to the share on the written direction, designation or agreement of, or notice to the Company by, any one of them.

Payment by post

35.12 A cheque or warrant may be sent by post:

35.12.1 where a share is held by a sole holder, to the registered address of the holder of the share; or

35.12.2 if two or more persons are the holders, to the registered address of the person who is first named in the register; or

35.12.3 if a person is entitled by transmission to the share, as if it were a notice to be sent under Article 41.8; or 35.12.4 in any case, to such person and to such address as the person entitled to payment may direct by notice to the Company.

Discharge to Company and risk

35.13 Payment of a cheque or warrant by the bank on which it was drawn or the transfer of funds by the bank instructed to make the transfer or, in respect of an uncertificated share, the making of payment in accordance with the facilities and requirements of the relevant system (which, if the relevant system is CREST, may include the sending by the Company or by any person on its behalf of an instruction to the Operator of the relevant system to credit the cash memorandum account of the holder or joint holders or, if permitted by the Company, of such person as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct) shall be a good discharge to the Company. Every cheque or warrant sent or transfer of funds made by the relevant bank or system in accordance with these Articles shall be at the risk of the holder or person entitled. The Company shall have no responsibility for any sums lost or delayed in the course of payment by any method used by the Company in accordance with Article 35.10.

Interest not payable

- 35.14 No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

Forfeiture of unclaimed dividends

- 35.15 Any dividend which has remained unclaimed for 12 years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the Board so resolves, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may (but need not) be paid by the Company into an account separate from the Company's own account. Such payment shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it. The Company shall be entitled to cease sending dividend warrants and cheques by post or otherwise to a member if those instruments have been returned undelivered to, or left uncashed by, that member on at least two consecutive occasions, or, following one such occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish the member's new address. The entitlement conferred on the Company by this Article in respect of any member shall cease if the member claims a dividend or cashes a dividend warrant or cheque.

36. CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

Power to capitalise

- 36.1 The Board may with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:
- 36.1.1 subject to the provisions of this Article, resolve to capitalise any undistributed profits of the Company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or other fund, including without limitation (and subject to the Companies Law) any capital account of the Company, if any;
 - 36.1.2 appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the members or any class of members on the record date specified in the relevant resolution who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions;
 - 36.1.3 apply that sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company in an amount equal to that sum, but the capital accounts of the Company may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in paying up shares to be allotted to members credited as fully paid;
 - 36.1.4 allot the shares, debentures or other obligations credited as fully paid to those members, or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other;
 - 36.1.5 where shares or debentures become, or would otherwise become, distributable under this Article in fractions, make such provision as they think fit for any fractional entitlements including without limitation authorising their sale and transfer to any person, resolving that the distribution be made as nearly as practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so, ignoring fractions altogether or resolving that cash payments be made to any members in order to adjust the rights of all parties;
 - 36.1.6 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the members concerned providing for either:

- (a) the allotment to the members respectively, credited as fully paid, of any shares, debentures or other obligations to which they are entitled on the capitalisation; or
- (b) the payment up by the Company on behalf of the members of the amounts, or any part of the amounts, remaining unpaid on their existing shares by the application of their respective proportions of the sum resolved to be capitalised, and any agreement made under that authority shall be binding on all such members;

36.1.7 generally do all acts and things required to give effect to the ordinary resolution; and

36.1.8 for the purposes of this Article, unless the relevant resolution provides otherwise, if the Company holds treasury shares of the relevant class at the record date specified in the relevant resolution, it shall be treated as if it were entitled to receive the dividends in respect of those treasury shares which would have been payable if those treasury shares had been held by a person other than the Company.

37. RECORD DATES

Record dates for dividends etc.

37.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Company or the Board may:

37.1.2 for the purpose of determining which persons are entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company, or a separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, and how many votes such persons may cast, specify in the notice of meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting (which, if the Board so specifies, shall be calculated taking no account of any part of a day that is not a working day), by which a person must be entered on the register in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting; changes to the register after the time specified by virtue of this Article shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting; and

37.1.3 for the purpose of sending notices of general meetings of the Company, or separate general meetings of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company, under these Articles, determine that persons entitled to receive such notices are those persons entered on the register at the close of business on a day determined by the Company or the Board, which day may not be more than 21 days before the day that notices of the meeting are sent.

Transfer on sale

- 43.2 To give effect to any sale pursuant to Article 43.1, the Board may:

43.2.1 where the shares are held in certificated form, authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer; or 43.2.2 where the shares are held in uncertificated form, do all acts and things it considers necessary or expedient to effect the transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer.

Effectiveness of transfer

- 43.3 An instrument of transfer executed by that person in accordance with Article 43.2.1 shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares. An exercise by the Company of its powers in accordance with Article 43.2.1 shall be as effective as if exercised by the registered holder of or person entitled by transmission to the shares. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and his title to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the sale.

Proceeds of sale

- 43.4 The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the Company which shall be obliged to account to the former member or other person previously entitled for an amount equal to the proceeds. The Company shall enter the name of such former member or other person in the books of the Company as a creditor for that amount. In relation to the debt, no trust is created and no interest is payable. The Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on the net proceeds of sale, which may be used in the Company's business or invested in such a way as the Board from time to time thinks fit.

44. WINDING UP

Liquidator may distribute in specie

- 44.1 If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by law:

44.1.1 divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members;

44.1.2 vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees for the benefit of the members; and

44.1.3 determine the scope and terms of those trusts, but no member shall be compelled to accept any asset on which there is a liability.

Disposal of assets by liquidator

- 44.2 The power of sale of a liquidator shall include a power to sell wholly or partially for shares or debentures or other obligations of another body corporate, either then already constituted or about to be constituted for the purpose of carrying out the sale.

References to liquidator

- 44.3 For the purposes of Article 44.1 and 44.2, references to a "liquidator" shall be construed as references to the Board in circumstances where a liquidator is not required to be, and has not been, appointed pursuant to the Companies Law.

45. INDEMNITY

Indemnity to directors and officers

- 45.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which the person concerned may otherwise be entitled, every director or other officer of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him for negligence, default, breach of duty, breach of trust or otherwise in relation to the affairs of the Company, provided that this Article shall be deemed not to provide for, or entitle any such person to, indemnification to the extent that it would cause this Article, or any element of it, to be treated as void under the Companies Law or otherwise unlawful under the Companies Law.

46. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

- 46.1 To the extent not otherwise provided by the Companies Law the members shall have the rights and the Company shall be subject to the provisions set out below. The rights and remedies set out in this Article 46 shall not in any way prejudice, and shall be cumulative with, all and any such rights or remedies any member may have under the Companies Law or any other statute or applicable customary law in Jersey.

- 46.2 For the purposes of this Article 46:

"appraisal" means a process whereby the Court (as defined herein) may make such order as it deems necessary or expedient in order to determine the fair value of a member's shares for the purpose of their repurchase by the Company;

"complainant" means:

- (a) a registered holder or beneficial owner, or a former registered holder or beneficial owner, of a security of the Company or any of its affiliates; or
- (b) a director or an officer or a former director or officer of the Company or any of its affiliates; or
- (c) a creditor
 - a. in respect of an application under Articles 46.3 to 46.5 (Derivative Action); or

- (d) any other person who, in the discretion of the Court, is a proper person to make an application under the provisions of Articles 46.3 to 46.5 (Derivative Action) or Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression), respectively; and

"security holder" means the registered holder or beneficial holder of a security of the Company where security is defined as a share of any class or series of shares or a debt obligation of the Company and includes a certificate evidencing such a share or debt obligation.

Derivative Action

46.3 A complainant may apply to the Royal Court of Jersey (the "Court") for leave to bring an action in the name of and on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or intervene in an action to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party, for the purpose of prosecuting, defending or discontinuing the action on behalf of the Company or subsidiary provided that no such leave may be granted unless the Court is satisfied that:

46.3.1 the complainant has given reasonable notice to the directors or to the directors of the subsidiary of his intention to apply to the Court hereunder if the directors or the directors of the subsidiary do not bring, diligently prosecute, defend or discontinue the action;

46.3.2 the complainant is acting in good faith; and

46.3.3 it appears to be in the interests of the Company or any of its subsidiaries that the action be brought, prosecuted, defended or discontinued.

46.4 Notwithstanding Article 46.3, when all the directors of the Company or all the directors of its subsidiary have been named as defendants, notice to the directors or directors of the subsidiary under Article 46.3.1 of the complainant's intention to apply to the Court is not required.

46.5 In connection with an action brought or intervened under Article 46.3 or 46.7.17 the Court may at any time make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any or all of the following:

46.5.1 an order authorizing the complainant or any other person to control the conduct of the action;

46.5.2 an order giving directions for the conduct of the action;

46.5.3 an order directing that any amount adjudged payable by a defendant in the action shall be paid, in whole or in part, directly to former and present security holders of the corporation or its subsidiary instead of to the corporation or its subsidiary; and

46.5.4 an order requiring the Company or its subsidiary to pay reasonable legal fees incurred by the complainant in connection with the action.

Oppression

46.6 A complainant may apply to the Court for an order under Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression) and the Court may make an order to rectify the matters complained of if, on such application, the Court is satisfied in respect of the Company or any of its affiliates that:

46.6.1 any act or omission of the Company or any of its affiliates effects a result;

46.6.2 the business or affairs of the Company or any of its affiliates are or have been carried on or conducted in a manner; or

46.6.3 the powers of the directors or any of the affiliates of the Company are or have been exercised in a manner, that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to or that unfairly disregards the interests of any security holder, creditor, director or officer.

46.7 In connection with an application under Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression), the complainant may ask the Court to make any interim or final order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any or all of the following:

46.7.1 an order restraining the conduct complained;

46.7.2 an order appointing a liquidator or receiver or receiver manager;

46.7.3 an order to regulate the Company's affairs by amending the Memorandum of Association or these Articles;

46.7.4 an order declaring that any amendment pursuant to Article 46.7.3 operates notwithstanding any unanimous agreement of the members made before or after the date of the order, until the Court otherwise orders;

46.7.5 an order directing an issue or exchange of securities;

46.7.6 an order appointing directors in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors then in office;

46.7.7 an order directing the Company or any other person to purchase securities of a security holder, subject to compliance with applicable provisions of the Companies Law;

46.7.8 an order directing the Company or any other person to pay to a security holder any part of the money paid by the security holder for securities;

46.7.9 an order directing the Company, subject to the Companies Law, to pay a dividend to the members or to a class of members;

46.7.10 an order varying or setting aside a transaction or contract to which the Company is a party and compensating the Company or any other party to the transaction or contract;

46.7.11 an order requiring the Company, within a time specified by the Court, to produce to the Court or an interested person financial statements or an accounting in any other form the Court may determine;

46.7.12 an order compensating an aggrieved person;

46.7.13 an order directing rectification of the register or other records of the Company;

46.7.14 an order for the winding-up and dissolution of the Company;

46.7.15 an order directing any person who appears to the Court to be qualified to do so to investigate such matters pertaining to the affairs of the Company as the Court shall determine;

46.7.16 an order requiring the trial of any issue; or

46.7.17 an order granting leave to the applicant to:

- (a) bring an action in the name and on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or
 - (b) intervene in an action to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party,
- for the purpose of prosecuting, defending or discontinuing an action on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

46.8 If an order made under Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression) requires an amendment to be made to the Memorandum of Association or to these Articles, no other amendment to the Memorandum of Association or to these Articles may be made without the consent of the Court, unless the Court otherwise orders.

46.9 A member is not entitled to dissent under Articles 46.11 to 46.30 (Right of Dissent and Appraisal) if an amendment to the Memorandum of Association or to these Articles is effected under Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression).

46.10 Nothing prevents an applicant under Articles 46.6 to 46.10 (Oppression) from taking all and any action necessary for the winding-up and dissolution of the Company.

Right of Dissent and Appraisal

46.11 A holder of shares of any class of the Company may dissent and exercise the rights set out in Articles 46.11 to 46.30 (Right of Dissent and Appraisal) if the Company resolves to:

46.11.1 amend these Articles to add, change or remove any provisions restricting or constraining the issue or transfer of shares of that class;

46.11.2 amend these Articles to add, change or remove any restrictions on the business or businesses that the Company may carry on;

46.11.3 amend these Articles to add or remove an express statement establishing the unlimited liability of members;

46.11.4 amalgamate with another company, other than a company or companies that are wholly-owned subsidiary companies;

46.11.5 be continued under the laws of another jurisdiction; or

46.11.6 sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all its property.

46.12 A holder of shares of a class or series of shares may dissent and exercise the rights set out in Articles 46.11 to 46.30 (Right of Dissent and Appraisal) if the Company resolves to amend these Articles to:

46.12.1 increase the maximum number of authorized shares of a class having rights or privileges equal or superior to the rights or privileges attached to the shares of that class;

46.12.2 effect an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of all or part of the shares of that class;

46.12.3 add, change or remove the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to the shares of that class and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

- (a) remove or change prejudicially rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends;

- (b) add, remove or change prejudicially redemption rights;
 - (c) reduce or remove a dividend preference or a liquidation preference; or
 - (d) add, remove or change prejudicially conversion privileges, options, voting, transfer or pre-emptive rights, rights to acquire securities of the Company or sinking fund provisions;
- 46.12.4 increase the rights or privileges of any class of shares having rights or privileges equal or superior to the rights or privileges attached to the shares of that class;
- 46.12.5 create a new class of shares having rights or privileges equal or superior to the rights or privileges attached to the shares of that class;
- 46.12.6 make the rights or privileges of any class of shares having rights or privileges inferior to the rights or privileges of the shares of that class equal or superior to the rights or privileges of the shares of that class;
- 46.12.7 effect an exchange or create a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of that class; or
- 46.12.8 constrain the issue or transfer of the shares of that class or extend or remove that constraint.
- 46.13 In addition to any other right a member may have but subject to Article 46.30 and subject to compliance with applicable provisions of the Companies Law, a member entitled to dissent hereunder and who complies with the requirements of Articles 46.11 to 46.30 (Right of Dissent and Appraisal) is entitled to be paid by the Company the fair value of the shares held by member in respect of which the member dissents, determined as of the close of business on the last business day before the day on which the resolution from which the member dissents was adopted.
- 46.14 A dissenting member may only claim hereunder with respect to all the shares of a class held by such member or on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of such dissenting member.
- 46.15 A dissenting member shall send to the Company a written objection to a resolution referred to in Articles 46.11 or 46.12:
- 46.15.1 at or before any meeting of members at which the resolution is to be voted on; or
 - 46.15.2 if the Company did not send notice to the member of the purpose of the meeting or of the member's right to dissent, within a reasonable time after the member learns that the resolution was adopted and of the member's right to dissent.
- 46.16 An application may be made to the Court after the adoption of a resolution referred to in Articles 46.11 or 46.12:
- 46.16.1 by the Company; or
 - 46.16.2 by a member if the member has sent an objection to the Company under Article 46.15, requesting the Court to fix the fair value in accordance with Article 46.13 of the shares of a member who dissents hereunder, or if applicable, to fix the time at which a member of an unlimited liability corporation who dissents hereunder ceases to become liable for any new liability, act or default of the unlimited liability corporation.

- 46.17 If an application is made under Article 46.16, the Company shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, send to each dissenting member a written offer to pay the member an amount considered by the directors to be the fair value of the shares.
- 46.18 Unless the Court otherwise orders, an offer referred to in Article 46.17 shall be sent to each dissenting member:
- 46.18.1 at least 10 days before the date on which the application is returnable, if the Company is the applicant; or
- 46.18.2 within 10 days after the Company is served with a copy of the application, if a member is the applicant.
- 46.19 Every offer made under Article 46.17 shall:
- 46.19.1 be made on the same terms; and
- 46.19.2 contain or be accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined.
- 46.20 A dissenting member may make an agreement with the Company for the purchase of the member's shares by the Company in the amount of the Company's offer under Article 46.17 or otherwise, at any time before the Court pronounces an order fixing the fair value of the shares.
- 46.21 A dissenting member:
- 46.21.1 shall not be required by the Company to give security for costs in respect of an application under Article 46.16; and
- 46.21.2 except in special circumstances as determined by the Court shall not be required to pay the costs of the application or appraisal.
- 46.22 In connection with an application under Article 46.16, the Company or the member may request the Court to give direction for:
- 46.22.1 joining as parties all dissenting members whose shares have not been purchased by the Company and for the representation of dissenting members who, in the opinion of the court, are in need of representation;
- 46.22.2 the trial of issues and interlocutory matters, including pleadings and examinations for discovery;
- 46.22.3 the payment to the member of all or part of the sum offered by the Company for the shares;
- 46.22.4 the deposit of the share certificates with the Court or with the Company or its transfer agent;
- 46.22.5 the appointment and payment of independent appraisers, and the procedures to be followed by them;
- 46.22.6 the service of documents; and

- 46.22.7 the burden of proof on the parties.
- 46.23 On an application under Article 46.16, the Company or the member may request the Court to make an order:
- 46.23.1 fixing the fair value of the shares in accordance with Article 46.13 of all dissenting members who are parties to the application;
 - 46.23.2 giving judgment in that amount against the Company and in favour of each of those dissenting members;
 - 46.23.3 fixing the time within which the Company must pay that amount to a member; and
 - 46.23.4 if applicable, fixing the time at which a dissenting member of an unlimited liability corporation ceases to become liable for any new liability, act or default of the unlimited liability corporation.
- 46.24 On
- 46.24.1 the action approved by the resolution from which the member dissents becoming effective;
 - 46.24.2 the making of an agreement under Article 46.20 between the Company and the dissenting member as to the payment to be made by the Company for the member's shares, whether by the acceptance of the Company's offer under Article 46.17 or otherwise; or
 - 46.24.3 the pronouncement of an order under Article 46.23,
- whichever first occurs, the member shall cease to have any rights as a member other than the right to be paid the fair value of the member's shares in the amount agreed to between the Company and the member or in the amount of the judgment, as the case may be.
- 46.25 Article 46.24.1 does not apply to a member referred to in Article 46.15.2.
- 46.26 Until one of the events mentioned in Article 46.24 occurs:
- 46.26.1 the member may withdraw the member's dissent or
 - 46.26.2 the Company may rescind the resolution,
- and in either event proceedings hereunder shall be discontinued.
- 46.27 The Court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting member, from the date on which the member ceases to have any rights as a member by reason of Article 46.24 until the date of payment.
- 46.28 If Article 46.30 applies, the Company shall, within 10 days after:
- 46.28.1 the pronouncement of an order under Article 46.23; or
 - 46.28.2 the making of an agreement between the member and the Company as to the payment to be made for the member's shares;

notify each dissenting member that it is unable under these Articles to pay dissenting members for their shares.

46.29 Notwithstanding that a judgment has been given in favour of a dissenting member under Article 46.23.2, if Article 46.30 applies, the dissenting member, by written notice delivered to the Company within 30 days after receiving notice under Article 46.28, may withdraw the member's notice of objection, in which case the Company is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the member is reinstated to the member's full rights as a member, failing which the member retains a status as a claimant against the Company, to be paid as soon as the Company is permitted to do so under these Articles or, in a winding up, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the Company but in priority to its other members.

46.30 The Company shall not make a payment to a dissenting member under Articles 46.11 to 46.30 (Right of Dissent and Appraisal) if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

46.30.1 the Company is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or

46.30.2 the realizable value of the Company's assets would by reason of the payment be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.
